has played about Mr Glass face for weeks, accompanied by a shake of the bend, was the answer that awaited bead, was the answer that awaited every one.

"I do not mind telling you," said Mr. Glass, "that I have the matter under consideration, and later, after consulting with friends, I may give out an announcement."

That was last night.

This morning bright and early the erribes were at his heels again.

"It is up to you, Mr. Glass," was the way they put it to him. "Virginia, everyhody in the old State, is waiting to hear from you. Can we say that you will run?"

No change. The identical smile and motion of the head. All understood. The treatment was courteous, yet positive.

Positive.
"How long, Mr. Glass, will you con-tinue to worry the representatives of the press?" asked an enthusiastic reporter.

"I expect to see some gentlemen here to-day," was the reply. "To-night I go to Richmond, where I will see others. The next day I hope to return here. You may rest assured of this: whenever I get ready to give out my announcement I shall be in Washington, and the declaration will to from here."

That is all we could get, To-night Mr. Glass left for Richmond, where

That is all we could get. To-night Mr. Glass left for Richmond, where he will spend to-morrow. He holds the key to the situation. His friends say that he has a right to do just what he is doing, as his waiting will hurt no one save himself, for the supporters of Judge Mann and Mr. Tucker are busy gathering in Stuart men.

Saloon League without turning a political storm centre. Much depends on its declarations for the coming year. If Mr. Glass should enter the race before the meeting at Norfolk the first battle of the campaign would take place there when the Mannites and the Glassites tried to control the convention.

From those who said that the present laws, which mean local option, were sufficient the State-wide prohibitionists would demand more. This sort of contest is promised and predicted if Mr. Glass throws down the glove to Judge Mann.

CHARLOTTE MAN _ KILLS HIMSELF

(Special to The Times-Dispatch 1

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTE, N. C., February 2.— Charles F. Wadsworth, one of the most prominent citizens in the business and social life of Charlotte, committed suicide to-day in a Greensboro hotel.
Wadsworth went to Greensboro Saturday on a business trip. Last night a stranger, who had registered at the Clegg Hotel there as "R. B. Varne, Virginia," shot himself through the head with a pistol, dying a few hours later at a hospital. The suicide left no message, and the only means of identification was an emblem of the Charlotte Chapter, Royal Arch Masons.
Late this afternoon a former Charlotte citizen viewed the body and identified it as Wadsworth.
No cause can be assigned for the deed. The deceased was, with two brothers at the bend of a large and

COULD NOT CURE WEEPING ECZEMA

Disease Began over Ear and Spread till Face and eack were Raw-Itching, Inflammation and Soreness were Terrible - Lasted Over a Year and All Treatments Failed

UNTIL CUTICURA AGAIN PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several things, but they did me no good. At last one side of my face and my neck clear up to my hair were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The cezema tiched so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces. The disease began in the fall and I did everything for it until the next winter. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Olatment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. I still use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills once in a while to cleanse the blood. I am very thankful that I tried Cuticura, and I can recommend it to any one. Miss Ann Pearsons, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, '07.'
